

December 5

What is the relationship between separable differential equations, slope fields, Euler's Method, exponential functions and logistic functions?

December 5

Students will verbally explain how to find the solution to a differential equation (using the words:
separate, initial value, constant ...)